The family of Mohammed al-Majed have thanked all those who helped bring the three men responsible for the teenager's death to justice.

Mohammed's father, Abdulla Al-Majed released a statement after the jury delivered their verdicts yesterday (Friday) afternoon.

He said: "Mohammed Abdulla Al-Majed, our boy, tragically lost his life just over a year ago.

"We believe that the ri

"We, the family, thank the Emir of Qatar and the Crown Prince for their belief in our family's search for justice.

"The support of the people of Qatar has been extraordinary.

"His Excellency, Mr Khalid Rashid Al-Mansouri and his staff have offered a first class service, showing tremendous strength and courage from beginning to end.

"We greatly appreciate and are grateful to, the British government and the people of Hastings for their genuine empathy.

"In particular, we thank the Crown Prosecution Service, counsel, Mr Camden Pratt and Mr Richard Barton for a stellar job.

"We are enormously thankful to DCI Trevor Bowles, DC Clinton Novelle, PC Simon Knight and everyone at Sussex Police, whose detailed and tireless hard work has, without a doubt, been crucial to securing this conviction."
